THIS IS A RESPONSE TO ALL ASBESTOS LITIGATION COUNSEL

I retired when I was 70 and am now 74. I no longer remember much of any of the details and I am sorry that you folks keep sending me documents, but I suppose that this means you are doing a tremendous job for defendants, because you have managed to stall through the death of a probable majority of the claimants.

I was merely the counsel in Alaska required by local rules. When each case was transferred to the Western District of Pennsylvania, my connection with the case was severed. That was many years ago and I have long since retired. With being retired, I do not have any copies of the files and I can only refer you to claimant's counsel with respect to each of these cases. Louis Robles of Robles and Gonzalez has handled the matter since those days and the principal attorney in the office handling these clients was Juan Bauta. This might be more of a help if Mr. Robles had not apparently embezzled the settlement funds, filed bankruptcy himself and then been disbarred by the Florida Bar. To me it is no help whatsoever because I cannot get reply from him telephonically, by mail or otherwise. I have managed to talk with one of his high school friends who filled me in on his divorce, but he is apparently lying low and no one, myself included, can be of much help.

You can reach Lenore Scott at PO Box 70177, Fairbanks, Alaska 99707 or through her counsel, David A. Jagolinzer, Esquire, The Ferraro Law Firm, 4000 Ponce De Leon Boulevard, Suite 700, Miami, Florida 33146. None of the other folks are known to me or ever have been personally known to me.

Now that you know everything I know, you will see that you are barking up a leafless tree. I can't say that I wish you good luck, because this would be contrary to the interest of my clients.

Please let me know if there is anything else I'm supposed to do.

Sincerely yours,
